Policies

- ALL email from the Manuscript Clearance Office will be sent ONLY to a student’s my.fsu.edu email listed in the Graduate Student Tracking (GST) database.

- Name on manuscript must match name listed in the GST database/Portal.
Issues of Copyright

- Office of Digital Research & Scholarship, FSU Libraries
  - Devin Soper & Rachel Smart
  - (850) 645-2600
  - https://lib.fsu.edu/drs/publishing
Use of Copyrighted Material

- Citation/attribution is only half the process
- Obtaining permissions/licenses to use copyrighted material is your first priority
- Permission usually required to reproduce:
  - Maps, drawings, tables, graphs, images, sound files, video clips, scales, measures, etc.
- If in doubt, request permission
  - Contact the owner of the copyright (author, publisher, etc.)
“Fair Use” of Copyrighted Material

- Protects certain uses, to certain extents, of copyrighted materials without obtaining permission
- Nebulous, vague and complex
- The author of the manuscript holds the responsibility for determining fair use
- Fair Use Evaluator and Research Guide: http://guides.lib.fsu.edu/copyright?hs=a
Use of Copyrighted Material

PLEASE BE AWARE

- Ultimately it’s the student’s responsibility to obtain written permission statement(s) from owner(s) of each third party copyrighted matter included in manuscript, if necessary.

- Copyright Letter(s) – Must upload in ProQuest ETD Administrator; do not include in appendix.

When signing the Access Agreement Form, you are stating that you have included any necessary permission letters to distribute the manuscript according to the terms of that form.
Your Copyrights

- Immediately upon creating your work in a “fixed, tangible medium”, you own full and final copyrights of the work.
- Copyright registration is optional.
- Adding the © symbol is recommended, but not required.
- Copyrights can only be transferred in writing.

READ WHAT YOU SIGN!
If you have already published your manuscript, in part or in whole:

- You may have assigned your copyright to the publisher.
- You must recognize the publisher according to their terms at the beginning of the chapter/article that uses the published materials.
