

SAVE THE DATES: Inaugural FSU Diversity & Inclusion Research & Teaching Book Club

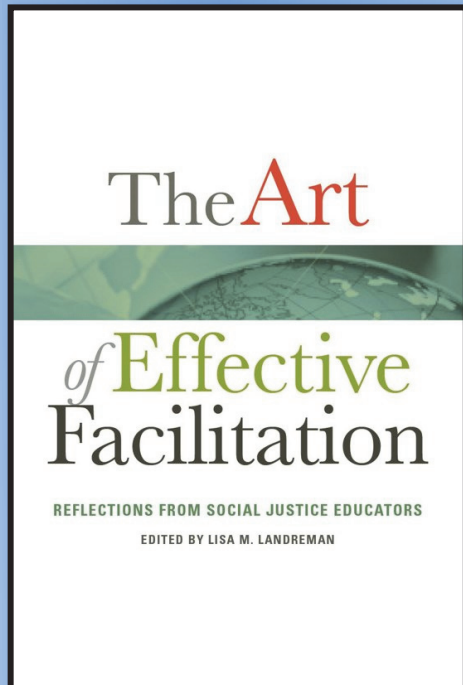

ORGANIZERS: DIRECTO
The FSU Diversity and Inclusion in Research and Teaching Organization

A partnership between The Program for Instructional Excellence (PIE) and The FELLOWS SOCIETY

When: Fridays, 3-5 pm 10/12, 10/19, 10/26, & 11/2
Where: Room 3009 Honors, Scholars, & Fellows House

The first 20 people who sign up to attend all 4 book club meetings, AND the Inaugural Symposium on Diversity & Inclusion in Research & Teaching (to be held on 10/5/18) will receive a free copy of this book!!! Register here: https://fsu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_5bzHGM16JKxJXvv

The Art of Effective Facilitation: Reflections From Social Justice Educators, by Lisa M. Landreman, Editor

Sponsored by:

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL ON DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Join us for our upcoming University-wide Diversity and Inclusion in Research & Teaching book club, sponsored by the FSU President's Diversity & Inclusion Mini-Grant Program. This book club will provide an opportunity to "continue the conversations" started at the SYMPOSIUM ON DIVERSITY & INCLUSION IN RESEARCH AND TEACHING, which will be held at FSU 10/5/2018. Participants for the book club and symposium are welcome from all areas of the university: faculty, staff, undergraduate students, graduate students & alumni!

The Graduate School | gradschool.fsu.edu